US$700,000 AIS Class A Order

SRT is pleased to announce that it has received a new order worth US$700,000 for its AIS Class A transceiver product.

The order will be delivered over a period of four months starting from the commencement of Class A volume production in May 2010.

Simon Tucker, CEO of SRT, said, "With this order, we now have a total forward order book of US$2.4m for our new Class A product which we will start delivering to customers during this quarter. As market demand continues to grow, we expect our Class A transceiver to be a strong additional revenue stream and profit driver during the new financial year and beyond."
